CHILD PROTECTION CLUB

The Child Protection Club of ACE aims to raise awareness and promote the safety and well-being of children. This involves educating student teachers about child abuse, neglect, and exploitation, as well as equipping them with the knowledge and skills to identify and report such cases.

Objectives

- To create awareness about child rights and child protection issues
- To educate students about child abuse, neglect, exploitation, and child labour
- To familiarize future teachers with child protection laws and policies
- To develop the skills needed to identify and report child protection concerns
- To promote professional ethics and social responsibility among student teachers

Activities

- Organizing seminars, workshops, and awareness programmes on child rights and child safety
- Conducting expert talks on child protection and the role of teachers
- Observing important days related to child welfare and child rights
- Arranging visits to schools, child care institutions, and NGOs
- Providing training on child-friendly classroom practices and early identification of children in distress
