ELECTORAL LITERACY CLUB (ELC)

The Electoral Literacy Club (ELC) of Annammal College of Education for Women was established on National Voters' Day in 2016. The Club aims to create awareness among student teachers about democratic values, voting rights, electoral processes, and the importance of active participation in elections. It prepares students to become informed and responsible citizens.

Objectives

- To educate students about voter registration and the electoral process
- To create awareness about voting rights and responsibilities
- To familiarize students with the functioning of EVMs and VVPATs
- To encourage students to promote electoral awareness in the community
- To strengthen democratic values and civic participation among students

Activities

- Demonstrating the functioning of E (EVM) and (VVPAT)
- Organizing workshops, seminars, competitions and guest lectures on electoral literacy
- Observing National Voters' Day and other election-related events
- Encouraging students to participate in voter awareness campaigns in the community
